

Field Days 2014: Experiments outside the Lab

Program

Friday, September 12:

09.30-10.15: Bas van der Klaauw (VU)

Evaluating Search Periods for Welfare Applicants: Evidence from a Social Experiment

10.15-11:00: Josse Delfgaauw (EUR)

Team Incentives, Social Cohesion, and Performance: A Natural Field Experiment

11.00-11.30: coffee break

11.30-12.30: Imran Rasul (UCL)

Extrinsic and Intrinsic Motivations for Tax Compliance: Evidence from a Field Experiment in Germany

12.30-14.00: lunch

14.00-14.45: Mattia Nardotto (University of Cologne)

Nudging with Information

14.45-15.30: Steffen Altmann (Bonn)

Defaults and Donations – Evidence from a Large-Scale Field Experiment

15.30-16.00: coffee break

16.00-16.45: Sacha Kapoor (EUR)

Incentive Provision in Multitask Jobs: Experimental Evidence from the Workplace

16.45-17.30: Daniel Neururer (Innsbrück)

Insurance Fraud in a Market for Computer Repairs - A Forensic-Economic Investigation

Evening: Dinner at O'Pazzo (located at Mariniersweg 90, very close to hotel Eden Savoy).

Saturday, September 13:

09.30-10.15: Jan Stoop (EUR)

Return to Sender: Ethical Behavior, Social Class, and Envelopes

10.15-11.00: Michèle Belot (Edinburgh)

How Do Job Seekers Search for Jobs?

11.00-11.30: coffee break

11.30-12.30: Steve Levitt (Chicago)

Title TBA

12.30-14.00: lunch

14.00-14.45: Christiane Bradler (ZEW) and Susanne Neckermann (EUR)

Money Meets Recognition: A Field Experiment

14.45-15.30: Sandra Vriend (VU)

Control-based or Trust-based Auditing: A Field Experiment in Long-term Care

15.30-16.00: coffee break

16.00-16.45: Ben Vollaard (UvT)

Between Saying and Doing. Testing Preferences for Consistency in a Field Experiment

Evening: informal drinks and dinner.

The workshop is organized by Josse Delfgaauw and Robert Dur and sponsored by the Erasmus School of Economics and the Tinbergen Institute.

Location of the workshop: Woudestein campus, Burgemeester Oudlaan 50, Rotterdam, H-building ('Tinbergen Building'), 9th floor, room 2.