

RUPRECHT-KARLS-
UNIVERSITÄT
HEIDELBERG

Field Days 9th edition (On-line)

December 18th 2020

Start: 1:50pm CENTRAL EUROPEAN TIME

1:50pm: Welcome word

2:00-2:40: Egon Tripodi (Essex, Chicago): “Self-Persuasion: Evidence from Field Experiments at Two International Debating Competitions”

2:40-3:20: Suanna Oh (Paris School of Economics): “Do Financial Concerns Make Workers Less Productive”

3:20-3:30: Break

3:30-4:10: Avner Strulov-Shain (Chicago Booth): “Sophisticated Consumers with Inertia: Long-Term Implications from a Large-Scale Field Experiment”

4:10-4:50: Andy Brownback (University of Arkansas) “Behavioral Food Subsidies”

4:50-5: Break

5-5:40: Yasir Khan (UC Berkley): “Mission Motivation and Public Sector Performance: Experimental Evidence from Pakistan”

5:40 – 6:30: Flash session (5 min presentation, 5 min discussion)

Timo Verlaat (Utrecht University) “Requirements vs. autonomy: what works in social assistance”

Tim Klausmann (University of Mainz) “Investment into Identity in the Field - Nudging Refugees Integration Effort”

Emma Riley (University of Oxford) “Resisting social pressure in the household using mobile money: Experimental evidence on microenterprise investment in Uganda”

Jakob Alfitian (University of Cologne) “When Bonuses Backfire: How Incentivizing Attendance Increases Absenteeism in the Workplace”

Johannes Wohlfart (University of Copenhagen) “Beliefs about the stock market and investment choices: Evidence from a field experiment”

6:30-7:30: Keynote: Eliana La Ferrara (Bocconi University)